Who is HH@WA?

UHA Health Insurance started the Hawai'i Health at Work Alliance (HH@WA), a first-of-its-kind organization, in 2013. It was created to ignite a grass-roots movement to transform the health and happiness of each employee across the state through the implementation of effective and sustainable worksite wellness practices. In only three short years, HH@WA has grown to over 375 companies that believe in and support wellness in the workplace. These companies look to HH@WA to provide reputable wellness partners that will help their employees live healthfully.
